FreedomVOICE Systems Announces Annual National Independent Agent Meeting

*Encinitas, CA....*FreedomVOICE Systems, a leading provider of a wide array of integrated virtual office tools, announces its annual independent agent meeting, slated for October 20-22 in San Diego, CA.

“Our continued dynamic growth has resulted in increased opportunities for qualified independent agents”, said Eric Thomas, CEO and founder of the ten-year old company. “At this year’s gathering, we are introducing some pretty exciting new products and services that will dramatically help our agents grow their businesses.”

In addition to tours of the company’s headquarter facilities, attendees will be granted access to FreedomVOICE System’s secure, environmentally controlled offsite data center where all systems equipment and production is housed.

A schedule of various meeting and training sessions includes guest speaker Terry Brock, author of the Succeeding Today column appearing in business journals throughout the country, and noted real estate expert and author Brian Rodgers whose national newsletter is read by nearly 80,000 real estate agents and brokers.

FreedomVOICE Systems’ products allow small and midsize companies to manage communications and marketing activities through an integrated, web-based communications hub. Virtual office tools including flexible, toll-free voice messaging, electronic faxing and advertising tracking, can enhance office productivity, increase customer interaction and potentially boost profit, according to company officials.

"I made a choice to quit my full-time job because I was tired of depending on someone else to determine what uninspiring projects I worked on, what I was capable of achieving and most of all, what my talent was worth", said FreedomVOICE Systems independent agent Tim Paulino of Yorba Linda, CA. "Through FreedomVOICE, I've been able to retire from my full-time job and start an exciting home-based business where I control my future and earnings. In just four years, I surpassed my old, full-time job salary by over 500%."
